Palazzo Viviani, Montegrolfo

Milan Darling

With a new survey citing Italy as the most popular luxury destination, it's lucky that Etihad has just launched direct flights to Milan from Abu Dhabi. Stay at the tiny but super-hip hotel 3Rooms at 10CorsoComo (3rooms-10corsocomo.com) or drive out to Emilia Romagna (Tuscany without the tourists) and stay at Alberta Ferretti's hotel Palazzo Viviani Montegrolfo (montegrolfo.com) in a fairytale hilltop village.

RECLINE IN STYLE

You may not need much for a beach break – flip-flops, bikini, sun lotion – but don't abandon glamour altogether: do your sunbaking on a towel by Jane Carr, whose scarves adorn the necks of Sophie Dahl and Princess Alexandra of Greece. From Dhs1,700, Jane Carr

Treasure Islands

To avoid holidaying with the hoi polloi, the big travel trend now is to simply hire a private island and transport all your friends and family there. Charter your own plane to get there and you need never mix with the madding crowd again.

1 NECKER ISLAND

Richard Branson – a man who knows luxury – is the private-island pioneer, and his Caribbean paradise (neckerisland.com), remains one of the most luxurious options.

BANYAN TREE

Banyan Tree has just started to offer exclusive use of its Madivaru resort in the Maldives, which has just six gorgeous tented pool villas and chefs, staff and spa treatments on hand.

Wheelle case, Dhs1,560, Mandarin Duck

Wheelle case, from Dhs1,800, Samsonite

When you're fed up with rifling through identical scruffy black suitcases at the airport carousel, it's time to invest in some fabulous luggage that really stands out on the conveyer belt, such as Samsonite's gorgeous new Fashionaire line. For something slightly more understated, Mandarin Duck has a great range in its Wafi City boutique.

3 DOUBLE ISLAND (doubleisland.com) is perfectly situated for exploring Tropical North Queensland, home to spectacular natural features including rainforests and the Great Barrier Reef.

GET GOOD ZEDS

If you find it hard to sleep when in a hotel, the problem could be as simple as the wrong pillows. Top Thai spa Chiva Som offers a menu of 14 pillows, from goosedown, which moulds to your neck, to buckwheat, which allows muscles to relax. Sheep-counting optional. For Chiva Som offers visit ttc.ae.
