Pssst...

Oversize teddy bears in the window of the brilliant Dover Street Market concept store, above, herald the arrival of the Black Shop this week. It's stocking the exclusive Comme des Garçons Black range, which is only available at this store and its Tokyo outlet.

Computer bags are not generally renowned for their elegance, but designer Ally Capellino has created the most beautiful, simple designs in collaboration with Apple for the MacBook. Available in red and white or brown and white stripes, the limited-edition bags cost from £85 at www.store.apple.com/uk.

Love is in the air... Look out for photographer Chris Craymer's first book, Romance, which will be exhibited in Mulberry's stores this month, priced £35 (www.chriscraymer.com/romance).

Pleats

A classic detail that has come into its own, pleats made a striking return to the runways in the spring/summer collections. They appeared in strong, bold colours at Sonia Rykiel's show, above, while Luella gave them a W1-style makeover with tweed jackets and pearl necklaces. Next's signature collection features a simple sleeveless pleated dress for just £55 (www.next.co.uk).

LITTLE GEM

Matthew Williamson's embellished waistcoat for H&M, £79.99, offers luxe for less (020-7323 2211).

This gold cuff from Helles, £172, is unadulterated statement jewellery (www.mywardrobe.com).

THE LITTLE THINGS THAT COUNT: SILK SCARVES

Around the neck, over the shoulders or tied to a handbag, these will glam up any outfit. By Prue White
