

SUPPLEMENT OF THE YEAR

VOGUE

3 JANUARY 2010

'I'M TOO
INSECURE
TO PICK UP MEN'

EXCLUSIVE:
KIM CATTRALL'S
REAL-LIFE
DATING
DILEMMA

GINO D'ACAMPO'S PASTA AND CHOCOLATE-CAKE DIET
FRIENDS AND MONSTERS One mother's internet abduction nightmare
NEW DECADE, NEW DECOR The hottest home trends for 2010

NECK KNACK

A scarf is an instant wardrobe updater and the easiest way to work the new season's prints. But it isn't just about what you wear: how you wear it can earn you extra style points. So who's your scarf icon?

£280, Jonathan Saunders, from net-a-porter.com

★ THE RIHANNA
How to steal her edgy style? Fold a square scarf in half, drape backwards around your neck, cross over and bring the tails forward.

£186, Jane Carr, tel: 020 7387 4337

£59, Ted Baker, tel: 0845 130 4278

★ THE CLAUDIA
For Ms Schiffer's hippie chic, tie a long floaty scarf in a high knot – et voilà.

£90, Dominique Mosley, dominiquemosley.com

£100, Twenty8Twelve, from mywardrobe.com

£15, Monsoon, tel: 0844 811 0068

★ THE BEYONCE
Fold a long scarf in half, put it around your neck and pull the loose end through the looped end.

£80, Olivia Rubin, oliviarubinlondon.com

★ THE JEN
We're loopy about this look, and it's a cinch: wrap your scarf around your neck once or more and tie.

£197, Crumpe, tel: 01206 396902

Selected items are available to buy online at you.co.uk